

I am writing to express my concern over the fact that the CBA is challenging the Indiana Telephone Privacy law. I do not want my bank or any other business to once again be able to make phone calls to my home number to solicit their services. I feel that this is a invasion to my personal time. Please do not allow this to happen. Thank-you